

Now that this much needed protection for our pets is close to being realized-- please don't delay it any longer. And do extend this coverage to all animals being transported for they are living beings and deserve humane treatment as well.